CONSIDERATIONS ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATION

There are 3 types of housing available for students who wish to come to Barcelona,

Residences: Residences are the safest option for students. The stays are usually of medium or long duration (from 6 months to 1 year). The monthly cost of the residences ranges from € 700 to € 1200 per month, depending on the distance to the center of the city, the type of room (individual, shared or double), and the services you need (pension, parking, gym,...). This option includes the cost of supplies such as internet, water and electricity. This option will depend on the availability of the Residences.

PROS

You will meet new people, both national and international

You will participate in group activities

You will practice languages

You will know new cultures

Safest option

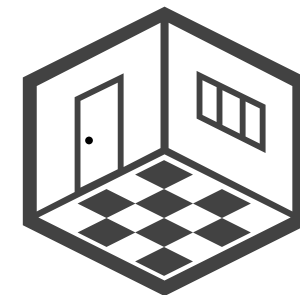

CONS

Some residences have closed hours

The included menus are usually closed

The bathrooms are usually shared

Rules on alcohol and drug use as well as behavior within the residence

RESIDENCES

CONSIDERATIONS ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATION

Rooms: you can find rooms for rent in shared flats with families or students. It is the most economical option, but it will depend exclusively on the availability that there is in the market, at the moment of your request. Prices can range from € 400 per month (depending on whether it is single, shared or double, as well as the location of the house). In many cases extraordinary supplies such as internet, water, gas, and light are not included.

PROS

You will get real experience, together with the family or the roommates

You will have your own space

You will feel more accompanied

CONS

You will live with family routines and conflicts

You will have to follow the rules of coexistence of the owner

Limited access to certain areas of the home

SHARED
ROOM

CONSIDERATIONS ABOUT THE ACCOMMODATION

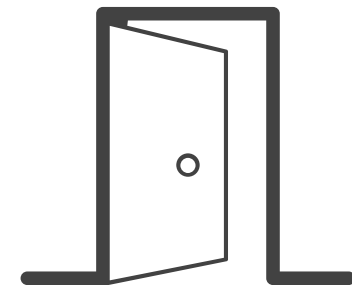

Flats: this is the option that provides the most privacy to the student. You can rent a house starting at € 750 per month, with no expenses included (for this option, you have to consider the fact that supplies will not be included in the price, nor will the contract management expenses and in some cases, they will not be furnished). The availability will depend on the supply and demand of the market at the time of the request. The duration of the rental of a flat must be more than 6 months.

PROS

- Independence
- Privacy
- Create your own rules
- Live as a local citizen

CONS

- You will have many responsibilities
- Invoices and monthly receipts
- Cleaning, shopping, kitchen, laundry, ...
- Rules on alcohol and drug use as well as behavior inside the flat

GENERAL INFORMATION

Payments: remember that Spain uses the EURO currency (€), valid for any country within the European community; although you can pay in virtually any establishment with debit or credit card. Check with your bank which card will benefit you most if you make a payment.

Bank Accounts: once you arrive in the country, you can go to the bank of your choice, and open a bank account with your passport number. Once you obtain your NIE, you can make the identification change in the bank. If you need help or advice, do not hesitate to ask us.

Cost of living: remember that without counting the amount you invest in the accommodation, the shopping basket will range between 100 € and 300 € per month per student (depending on the type of diet you make) and that monthly public transport will cost about 50 € approximately.

Hand luggage: before traveling, remember to have in your handbag:

- Passport
- Visa
- Travel tickets
- Prescription medicines
- Cash (for emergencies or taxi trips)
- Any official documentation that you need for your studies (insurance policies, medical certificates with apostille, apostille criminal record, national identification, apostille notes)

PRACTICAL INFORMATION BEFORE TRAVELLING

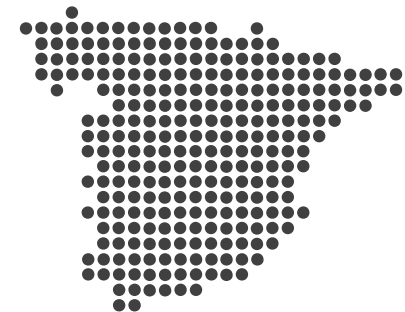

INFORMATION ABOUT SPAIN

Routines / schedules: life on the streets of Barcelona starts at 9:00, like your studies. The usual meal schedule ranges from 1:00 pm to 3:00 pm; and dinner times between 8:00 p.m. and 10:00 p.m.

Diet: Mediterranean diet. This diet, considered one of the healthiest, is based on the variety of colors, obtained through vegetables, fruits, meats and fishes, decorated with assorted legumes and seasoned with olive oils and vinegars. The average price of the menu in a restaurant is 10 € (2 or 3 courses, dessert and drink)

Where to buy: you will find food centers in every street. Deciding where to buy will be up to you. Remember that the monthly shopping basket will have an average price of 150 €; Or if you prefer, you can eat at any restaurant in the city the varied daily menu based on the local diet.

Facilities: the city is constantly modernized. The constant movement of tourism has defined Barcelona as one of the most cosmopolitan cities in Spain and in the world. You can enjoy modern centers, equipped with the latest technology, to centers set in the 60s and even theme centers.

INFORMATION ABOUT SPAIN

Transportation: traveling around the city is much simpler than you think; The whole city is communicated by public transport. You can reach any corner of the city using train, metro, bus and or tram. Being public transport, you can move by any method buying the transport card (approximately 50 € per month with unlimited trips). If you are one of those who prefer private, quiet transport, there is a large network of taxis in the city and they are very easy to access.

Leisure: if you want to know where to enjoy the city by day, you can move around the large shopping centers that you will find throughout the city; some of them with 5 *. You can also enjoy cinemas, bowling, recreational games, skating, figure skating, ... and any activity you want. If you fancy nightlife, the city is alive at night. There are thousands of night spots where you can enjoy safe and cheerful environments. For you to have notions of the price, going to the cinema will cost you around 7 € for the entrance and going for a cocktail at the night around 6 €.
